

WHEREAS, Judy Deggeller, an advocate of child literacy, music education, senior programs, and senior nutrition, has been instrumental in creating meaningful and impactful community programs. From developing a library program into the nonprofit, Bring Me A Book Foundation, or co-authoring a memory, music, and exercise program for dementia patients in skilled nursing care facilities, she has brought numerous innovative programs to the community;

WHEREAS, during the COVID-19 pandemic, Ms. Deggeller delivered meals to neighbors and friends, and compiled those recipes in a self-published cookbook, the proceeds of which went to support the Ecumenical Hunger Program. She currently volunteers with the Rosalie Rendu Center in East Palo Alto; and,

WHEREAS, Ms. Deggeller and her husband, Marty (a 2016 Avenidas Lifetimes honoree himself) live in Palo Alto and have two sons and four grandchildren.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara does hereby honor and commend in recognition of her receipt of a 2024 Avenidas Lifetimes of Achievement Award.

Judy Deggeller

PASSED AND ADOPTED, by the Board of Supervisors, County of Santa Clara, State of California on this 7th day of May, Two Thousand and Twenty-Four by unanimous vote.
