Attachment A2

Operating expenses are direct costs to the program that may include services charges, telephone/cellphone, utilities, program supplies (such as food/snack/beverage for clients), etc. Indirect costs are costs that cannot be directly assigned to the program (e.g., overhead, accounting services, administrative services).

Budget Narrative – XC Grant

Budget Narrative: Contractor will utilize XC project funds to fund the salary and benefit costs of one full-time Child Advocacy Center (CAC) Coordinator (The title for a Community Based Victim Advocate at the YWCA is CAC Coordinator), a portion of the YWCA Counseling and Healing Services Manager, a portion of the Children's Services Coordinator II, a portion of the Crisis Support Counselor, and a portion of the Community Support Advocate ($141,501.00) along with Operating Expenses ($3,975.00) and Indirect Costs ($14,524.00).

The YWCA CAC Coordinator is on-site at the CAC and provides crisis intervention, forensic medical exam accompaniment and confidential advocacy services to victims and their families. After the initial contact, the YWCA CAC Coordinator provides follow-up services to the victim and their family, and coordinates referrals for on-going services. Depending on client need, the CAC Coordinator can arrange for additional crisis intervention services by mobilizing YWCA and Community Solutions internal rotations, depending on jurisdiction (Southern, Central, or Northern County). Additionally, the YWCA CAC Coordinator creates warm handoffs with non-project funded YWCA Advocates as needed to further assist survivors with civil and/or family court accompaniment, and referrals to other internal YWCA services, including childcare, therapy, and housing.

The Counseling and Healing Services Manager provides direct supervision to the CAC YWCA team and ensures that there is effective program integration between therapeutic services and YWCA CAC confidential advocate services. They also serve as the YWCA representative on the CAC Leadership Team and are manager on-call for afterhours support.

The Children's Services Coordinator II provides coordination of care to children and families as well as on-site supervision and support to YWCA staff. They additionally provide direct services such as crisis counseling, safety planning, community support and engagement, support groups, community referrals, and information to individuals and families referred from the CAC.

The Crisis Support Counselor provides crisis counseling, safety planning, community support and engagement, support groups, community referrals, and information to individuals and families referred from the CAC.

The Community Support Advocate is on-site at the CAC and provides advocacy, on-going emotional support/counseling, case management, and community referrals to victims and their families.

Budget Narrative – NCA Grant

Budget Narrative: Contractor will utilize NCA grant funds to provide direct advocacy services at the CAC. This funding is to cover the Advocate(s) at an hourly rate starting at $40/hour and up to $60/hour; maximum of $480/day. Total number of hours will be a minimum of 383.33 and not to exceed 575 hours.

Budget Narrative – Santa Clara County General Fund

Contractor will utilize Santa Clara County General Fund to support one additional on-site Community Based Victim Advocate, two additional Case Managers, crisis intervention staffing, a portion of the Counseling and Healing Services Manager and Crisis Intervention Manager positions, and related operating and administrative expenses associated with YWCA staffing for CAC.

Attachment A2

The Case Manager provides advocacy, on-going emotional support/counseling, case management, and community referrals to individuals and families referred from the CAC.

The Crisis Intervention Manager directly supervises Crisis Intervention Advocates and manages In-Person Response (SART Response) and walk-ins. They are also manager on-call for afterhours support.

The Crisis intervention staffing provide daytime and after hours in-person crisis intervention response to child abuse survivors/families.
